

A Note of Gratitude from Glynis Conyer, Executive Director

These have been trying days for us all and it is times like these that the true character of a community emerges. I am amazed (but not really surprised) by how our ECC & CJL teachers have stepped up and adapted to this new virtual world, to be an ongoing presence in their students and their families' lives.

Behind the scenes our custodians, Alonso Osorio, Sal Lagani and Derek Fleary, continue to ensure our facility is safe and clean. Our support team, Michelle Simon, Jon Rekedal, Abby Pisaniello and Jeff Frumess assure that the daily operations are almost seamless. I am so grateful for the partnership of our amazing professional staff, Cantor Cooperman, Rabbi Gropper, Dale Oberlander, Amy Rosenbaum, Yael Farber, Jeff Dreifus and Brenda Wilkin, and for our Board of Trustees, under the incredible leadership of Sue Zeitlin. And I am overwhelmed by the tremendous outpouring of love and offers of help of all kinds. I am so grateful to be a part of Community Synagogue of Rye. You give me strength each day and make my life so much richer.

Thank you~ Yasher Koach!

To Carol Meyers for your cooking demos and having your K/1 class make pictures they are emailing to their SAJE "pen pals" and for working tirelessly on organizing a virtual communal Yom Hashoah service

To Kahleen Rozowsky, Sue Kauder, Carol Meyers and Wendie Seguljic for organizing grocery deliveries to those who are home bound at this time and to the Hesed and Tzedek committees

To all of the first responders, medical professionals, police, fire, teachers, cashiers, restaurant workers and everyone else who is working tirelessly to service others, we are all indebted to you

Mazal Tov to our March Bat Mitzvah, Carly Goldstein

My name is Carly Goldstein and I was called up to the Torah as a bat mitzvah on March 28. I am a 7th grader at Rye Middle School. My parents are Julie and Jeffrey Goldstein. I have a younger brother named Alexander. I enjoy figure and synchronized skating. My Torah portion is Vayikra from the Book of Leviticus. It describes how people are supposed to sacrifice to God, and what they gain from doing so. For my mitzvah project, I volunteered with the SPCA animal shelter. I helped animals at a large shelter feel comfortable and content. Many of the animals really need help because it's a large and crowded place, filled with many animals in need of companionship. I really enjoyed working and being around all of the animals. We even took a cat home, named Pantera, to join the family. I will continue volunteering and spending time at the shelter throughout my school career.
