

Kadima Digest #12

The Jewish spirit of giving.

The great philosopher Winston Churchill once said “We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give”. I doubt the Churchill was familiar with the concept of tzedakah, but he did a pretty good job of summing it up. Tzedekah, giving (actually righteousness), is one of the principle foundations of being a Jew. As Jews we have an obligation to give to the needy. It is a responsibility we tend to take on very willingly. Community Synagogue of Rye is turning to you, our community, in a time of need and asking you, in the spirit of tzedakah, to please contribute whatever you are able to the Kadima Together Campaign. Together we can assure that CSR’s vision for the future is fulfilled, as we continue to be “A Caring Jewish Community That Adds Meaning and Purpose to Your Life” and to the lives of future members.
