Book of Remembrance

The Art of Memory

The custom of publishing congregational Memory Books is an ancient one which can be traced back to the early Thirteenth Century. Many of the early examples of such books contain pages which are beautifully illuminated with artistic renderings of sacred Jewish symbols and art forms. This edition of our Memory Book has been transformed into a keepsake of lasting value which we feel will be a great source of pride to our members.

The Significance of Yizkor

Yizkor was originally a prayer that appears to have its origins in Western Germany. Although the origins of Yizkor and its recitations are unclear, its primary purpose was to commemorate the Jewish martyrs slain during the First and Second Crusades. In time, this origin was forgotten, but the warmth and nostalgia of remembrance became part of Jewish ritual.

Few ceremonies in Jewish life are more powerful in meaning than this Memorial Service. It is a time to remember those loved ones who have passed beyond the threshold of life and into the great space of eternity. It is a time to give homage to those who made the world a better place because they lived in it. It is a time to strengthen the bonds between here and the hereafter in the hearts and minds of those who survive their departed:

“The dust returns to the earth as it was, but the spirit returns to the God who gave it.”
(Ecclesiastes 12:7)

From the Mourner's Bench

Why did the ancients who arranged our Yom Kippur worship attach Yizkor memories to this day of repentance? And why, near its end, when we pray: “Seal us for blessing in the Book of Life?”

Some questions are better answered with a story. A man prepared his will. All matters were covered. After he died, his children followed his wishes, including one that puzzled them. It had to do with the setting of his grave. He had written in his will, “At my grave place a small bench, and before it a compass with directions, North, South, East, and West. When you visit, follow the directions. The request seemed quixotic, but they loved their Dad, and so they followed his request.

When they gathered to dedicate his memorial stone, they sat on the bench. Filled with memories, their eyes focused on the compass. Now they understood their father's request. He always told them that “memory is perspective.” Thus, the compass! In his death, he had wanted them to make sure that they carried his memory with them wherever they went: North, South, East, and West. Jewish tradition emphasizes that we are defined by the memories of those we carry with us in the course of our journey.

Inevitably, there is a disquieting question that haunts these Yizkor moments. Sitting on the bench, we are invited to face it. The question is not about those whose memories we cherish but about the nature of our own immortality. That's the penultimate question of these Yizkor moments. That's where these moments bring us before our “Book of Life” is sealed.

How shall we use the rest of the only life we will ever be given?

How shall we make the days and months count?

How will we live out our unused years?

Dr. Martin J. Zion, Rabbi Emeritus, Temple Israel in the City of New York 5778 (Rabbi of Temple Israel 1963-1991)

and death a destination.

And life is a journey:

from childhood to maturity and youth to age;

from innocence to awareness and ignorance to knowing;

from foolishness to discretion and then, perhaps to wisdom;

from weakness to strength or strength to weakness – and often, back again.

From health to sickness and back, we pray, to health again;

from offense to forgiveness, from loneliness to love,

from joy to gratitude,

from pain to compassion, and grief to understanding – from fear to faith;

from defeat to defeat to defeat –

until, looking backward or ahead we see that victory lies not at some high place along the way, but in having made the journey, stage by stage a sacred pilgrimage.

Birth is a beginning

And death a destination.

But life is a journey,

from birth to death to life everlasting.

—Alvin Fine

SORROW COMES IN GREAT WAVES... but it rolls over us, and though it may almost smother us it leaves us on the spot, and we know that if it is strong we are stronger, inasmuch as it passes and we remain. It wears us, uses us, but we wear it and use it in return; and it is blind, whereas, we after a manner see... everything will pass, and serenity and accepted mysteries and disillusionments, and the tenderness of a few good people, and new opportunities and ever so much of life, in a word, will remain.

—Henry James

BUILD ME UP of memory loving and angry, tender and honest.
Let my loss build me a heart of wisdom, compassion for the world's many losses.

Each hour is mortal and each hour is eternal and each hour is our testament.
May I create worthy memories all the days of my life.

One-by-One: A Prayer as the COVID Death Toll Mounts, By Alden Solovy

God of consolation,
Surely you count in heaven,
Just as we count here on earth,
In shock and in sorrow,
The souls sent back to You,
One-by-one,
The dead from the COVID pandemic,
As the ones become tens,
The tens become hundreds,
The hundreds become thousands,
The thousands become ten-thousands
And then hundred-thousands,
Each soul, a heartbreak,
Each soul, a life denied.

God of wisdom,
Surely in the halls of divine justice
You are assembling the courts,
Calling witnesses to testify,
To proclaim
The compassion of some
And the callousness of others
As we've struggled to cope.
The souls taken too soon,
Whose funerals were lonely,
Who didn't need to die,
Who died alone,
Will tell their stories
When You judge
Our triumphs
And our failures
In these hours of need.

God of healing,
Put an end to this pandemic,
And all illness and disease.
Bless those who stand in service to humanity.
Bless those who grieve.
Bless the dead,
So that their souls are bound up in the bond of life eternal.
And grant those still afflicted
With disease or trauma
A completed and lasting healing,
One-by-one,
Until suffering ceases,
And we can stop counting the dead,
In heaven
And on earth.

In Memory of a Parent

My heart fills with tender memories of you in this Yizkor hour. I recall your care, how you watched over me, goaded and guided me, embraced and enveloped me with your nurturing love. I remember the days we spent together, in love and friendship. I miss your concern, your wisdom, your kind, proud eyes in which I danced. You gave me life and formed my love for life. The bond which unites us can never be severed. You live forever in the goodness I do and in the light I bring into the lives of others. I give thanks to God for all my precious memories of you.

In Memory of a Life Companion

We shared the sweet vintage of life together. How fortunate we were, two stars in an infinite sea of space to find each other, and to brighten existence with our embraces of love. We drank from the cup of affection, built our house of dreams, shared sorrows, frustrations and fulfillments. Now I miss you every day, O companion of my life, my closest and best friend. I hear your voice urging me not to dwell in despair, but to grasp life for both of us. I give thanks to God for the gifts of our love and for the inspiration of your memory.

In Memory of a Brother, a Sister, a Close Relative or a Friend

In this Yizkor moment, I recall you. I remember the days when we shared companionship, laughter and wisdom. You supported me in times of trouble, uplifted my spirits when I was down. You are gone, but your influence continues to echo lovingly inside me. Your thoughts and deeds live on. I cherish your memory. May life distill its goodness into countless blessings, which reflect your image which ever abides with me. I am ever grateful for all we shared.

It is as impossible to sum up the life of a person with a bouquet of words as it is to sum up the universe with a handful of sand.

LET US TREASURE the time we have,
and resolve to use it well, counting each moment precious – a chance to apprehend some truth, to experience some beauty, to conquer some evil, to relieve some suffering, to love and be loved, to achieve something of lasting worth.
Help us, God, to fulfill the promise that is in each of us, and so to conduct ourselves that generations hence it will be true to say of us:

The world is better, because for a brief space, they lived in it.

On the following pages, the location of each memorial plaque is listed as x and y coordinates. To find the memorial plaque of your loved one, please count from the bottom left of the plaque wall. First count across for the x coordinate, which is the first number listed, then count up for the y coordinate, which is the second number listed here.

Our thoughts are with those who have died this year in defense of freedom, especially those who have been members of the United States Armed Forces. Our hearts are also with those who have died defending the State of Israel and the Jewish People.

DEATH IS NOT THE ENEMY

(Joshua Loth Liebman, excerpted)

We are like children privileged to spend a day in a great park, a park filled with many gardens and playgrounds, and azure-tinted lakes and boats sailing upon tranquil waves.

True, the day allotted to each of us is not the same in length, in light, in beauty. Some children of earth are privileged to spend a long and sunlit day in the garden of the earth. For others, the day is shorter, cloudier, and dusk descends more quickly as in a winter's tale.

The day we are privileged to spend in the great park of life is not the same for all human beings; but there is enough beauty and joy and gaiety in the hours, if we but treasure them.

Then for each of us the moment comes when the great nurse, death, takes us by the hand and quietly says, "It is time to go home. Night is coming. It is your bedtime, child of earth. Come, you're tired. Lie down at last in the quiet nursery of nature and sleep. Sleep well. The day is gone. Stars shine in the canopy of eternity."

GRANT ME THE ABILITY to be alone,
May it be my custom to go outdoors
Each day among the trees and grasses,
Among all growing things, and there May I be alone, and enter into prayer To talk with the One that I belong to.

—Nachman of Breslov

OUR ANGELS

Spend much of their time sleeping
In their dreams
They tear down the new houses by the sea
And build old ones
In their place.

No matter how long they may sleep
One hundred two hundred years
Ten centuries is not too much
The first to wake up
Takes the torch that has been handed down Adds a drop of oil to the lamp
Blesses the eternal light
And then recalls the name
Of every other angel
And one by one as they are remembered
They wake up.

For them
As for us
There is nothing more beautiful Than memory.

—Howard Schwartz

WE SAY SHALOM, and not goodbye, for shalom is goodbye and hello and wholeness and peace all threaded together in one breath, and in one breath we too say goodbye... to a hand to hold, a kiss and a tight embrace, and in the same breath of shalom we say hello to an ocean of memories and a rush of emotion, gratitude and sorrow, tears and laughter and trembling and fatigue all in one breath.

—Zoe Klein

The melody that the loved one played upon the piano of our life will never be played quite that way again, but we must not close the keyboard and allow the instrument to gather dust. We must seek out other artists of the spirit, new friends who gradually will help us find the road to life again, who will walk on that road with us. The establishment of new patterns of interaction with other people, beginning with the interaction of language and moving on to new avenues of creative expression, is [a] law for the conquest of grief and the conquest of death.

—Joshua Loth Liebman
